OILFIELD DRIVER INSTRUCTOR PROGRAM PROCESS AND PRE-REQUISITES FOR CERTIFICATION

PROCESS

1. Submit a completed, and signed, Vacuum Instructor Application, which must include a current copy of your provincial driving record (abstract). An air brake endorsement is required for Class 1 or 3.
2. As required, successfully complete any pre-entrance examination.

PRE-REQUISITES

Vacuum Truck Operator (VTO)

1. At least three (3) years upstream petroleum industry experience.
2. Must have a current General Oilfield Driver Improvement (GODI) Instructor certificate.

Oilfield Driving Experience

- ❖ Oilfield driving experience includes driving a significant amount of time in an off-highway (not paved) environment on multiple types of roads typical of the upstream industry where upstream oil and gas activities such as exploration, production and servicing occur.
- ❖ Experience does not include the following: time as a driver trainer, where the majority of time driving is on paved roads, midstream or downstream activities, agricultural driving, forestry operations, long-haul driving, mining operations or regulatory enforcement operations.

MAINTENANCE

1. Each VTO Instructor certificate must be maintained by instructing a minimum of one (1) course per year over the three-year certification period.
2. Must participate in the Enform Certified Instructor Diploma (CID) Program.

Note: The VTO Instructor must also maintain their GODI Instructor certificate by instructing a minimum of two (2) GODI courses per year over the three (3) year GODI Instructor certification period.

RE-CERTIFICATION

1. Instructors must have taught the minimum number of courses required.
2. Instructors need to complete the CID.

Certification of instructors who do not deliver the minimum number of courses per year over the three-year period will expire and the instructor will need to re-apply for Instructor certification.

RE-APPLICATION

1. Submit completed application.
2. Complete the applicable VTO course. This course must be an Enform open registration course.
3. Complete a one-day re-certification seminar.

INSTRUCTOR AUDITS

Effective April 1, 2004, all new instructors must have their first course audited by a qualified instructor auditor. The cost of this audit shall be the responsibility of the instructor.
